Dear families and friends,

The new principal, Ms Filina Virgato, visited the school on Wednesday and met staff and many students. She was welcomed in the great tradition of Nano Nagle, the woman of welcoming heart. Filina also met with the Leadership Team and the College student leaders for 2016. It was an important first stage of the transition and Filina was very warm and enthusiastic and is very much looking forward to her role. She will be here again on November 20th for the Year 7 Orientation Day and have the opportunity to meet the new students and their parents.

The Year 11s have finished classes and had their final Eucharist yesterday. They begin their exams next week although many have already had exams in their Unit ¾ study. It is a demanding time for them all but a vital one as they seek to do their very best to complete Year 11 and prepare for their final year in 2016. I wish them all the very best.

This week the beautiful mosaic pictured here has been installed on the College wall adjacent to the flagpoles. The artwork has been funded by the Prahran RSL as a Gallipoli centenary project. Artist Sankar Nadeson worked with Year 8 Gold & Red students. The WW1 Nurse pictured is the ‘everywoman’ of that war and all wars and will adorn the wall for generations to come reminding our community of the sacrifices of so many. We are very pleased that the installation has been completed in time for the Remembrance Day service on Wednesday, November 11.

Please note the Women of Windsor event on November 22, which will launch this significant Alumnae initiative. If you know of former students who would like to be involved, please pass on the details which you will find in this edition. Here are two of the prayers from the yesterday’s Year 11 liturgy:

We are blessed by having been touched by Nano’s light and love. May we apply our gift of education to every situation and share that Presentation love with all, especially those most in need.

Following the example of Jesus and Nano, may we too be people of welcoming hear, challenging our political leaders over this country’s current policies on asylum seekers.

Good wishes

Year 8 Language Festival

Last Thursday, October 29, was the Year 8 Language Festival. Families, students and teachers came to join in a fun and fairly informal celebration of language learning at PCW Melbourne. This was our 5th Language Festival and the focus continues to be on having Year 8 students demonstrate the skills they are learning in their French, Italian and Japanese classes.

The evening was led by our four very brave and entertaining MCs (Charlotte McMahon, Ava Fawaz, Carla Destito and Stephanie Viecelli). These girls introduced a variety of short presentations created by the students. Parents, students and teachers were all interested in seeing what we learn in our language classes. We watched some role-plays and a couple of very funny films. We listened to recitations in Japanese and Italian and the evening ended with the Italian classes singing the school song ... yes, in Italian!

One highlight of the evening was Carly Bode, our special guest speaker. Carly spoke to us about where languages can take us. Hers has been an amazing and exciting journey. Several girls described her speech as being an inspiration to them. After studying Japanese at secondary school and then at university, Carly worked with the Japan Exchange and Teaching Program (JET) in Japan for more than two years. She has since used her language and marketing skills to work as the Marketing Manager for a company with offices in Tokyo and Australia. Carly described the variety of choices and opportunities that have been open to her as a result of becoming a fluent speaker of a second language. We loved listening to her and I’m sure she has inspired many of our students to continue their language studies in the future.

It was a wonderful evening, and the Year 8s should be very proud of their achievements. Well done girls!

Year 10 &11 French Excursion

French students learn about marketing and culture

Year 10 and 11 girls at PCW were the first Victorian students to meet the French team of Danone, multinational food-products corporation based in Paris.

The girls met the French Sales Manager, the Supply Chain Manager and the Human Resources team during a visit in October. With its mission to bring health food to as many people as possible, Danone is a world leading food company built on four business lines: Fresh Dairy Products, Early Life Nutrition, Nutrition, Waters and Medical Nutrition.

Danone has 60 per cent of its turnover outside Europe, it has millions of consumers all over the world, operates over 140 countries and employs 100,000 people around the world. The company aims to create entrepreneurial spirit and encourage individuals to take initiatives and demonstrate proximity with their ecosystem. In fact, Danone is strongly involved in sustainability and environment with various projects around the world. Danone is a very young company in Melbourne which started at the end of 2010. And the first yoghurt was made in 2011.

PCW students learnt that a foreign company has to adapt itself to lifestyle of local cultures around the globe. For example, Australians eat six to seven kilograms of yogurt per year compared to 35 kilograms for West Europeans. In this case, marketing strategies are very important. They also discovered that French is a plus on your CV. It helps you to understand the French culture behind Danone. But the future candidate must support Danone values as well such as humanism, proximity, open mindness and enthusiasm.

Listening to French accents with different French native speakers, learning about marketing, and cultural differences made my students understand why speaking a second language is vital as a future world citizen. Après l’effort, le réconfort. After working hard (listening and questioning in French), the students were rewarded. The students tasted different brands of yoghurt filling up a sensory questionnaire. You can bet the creamiest one has been adopted.

Year 10 ‘Language & Literature’ Excursion

An excited troop of Year 10 Language and Literature students led by a fearless Ms O'Donnell wound their way through torrents of gushing water and rivers of mud to The Ian Potter Museum at the University of Melbourne.

Why were we so adventurous on the wettest day of the year? We were eager to witness a rare and beautifully illustrated 16th century prayer book, the Rothschild Prayer Book. It is on display at the museum along with other medieval and Renaissance pieces from Kerry Stokes’ private collection. This Flemish manuscript is indeed a sight to behold. Perfectly preserved and vividly illustrated, the colours are fresh and the Latin text clearly legible.

We relished the experience; in fact, we were filled with wonder: "I loved the prayer book", said Tia Crofton.

Then a wander through Union House and the cloisters of Old Arts and the Law Buildings, to delighted cries of "Harry Potter", took us to the Baillieu Library where in the foyer Iona reminded us that this is the largest library in the country! The girls were entranced.

A lovely literary afternoon!

Year 9 Eachtra Program

The November program of Eachtra gets underway next week! This is a very exciting and busy time for the Year 9’s and is the culmination of much of the social and academic progress they have made this year.

There are some whole year level programs they will participate in such as leadership training, careers and financial planning education sessions, and their Step-up Health and fitness day. In other parts of the program, the girls work in smaller groups. These include when they go on camp to either Wilson’s Prom or Balnarring and during their ‘Melbourne Program’.

The schedule of days is included below, and all students and their families, have received the appropriate information and permissions forms.
